

Society

Personals.

Mrs. Robert Meyer has returned from Norfolk, Va., where she was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Newmyer were at home Thursday afternoon, from 3 to 6 o'clock, in honor of their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary, at 1650 Fuller place, and in the evening entertained at a family gathering. A buffet supper was served during the evening.

Mrs. James Lansburgh has taken an apartment in the Biltmore, 1940 Biltmore street.

Miss Sylvia Sinsheimer of Baltimore is the guest of her cousin, Miss Hazel Bornheim of 3408 N. street.

Mrs. M. Herman, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Lee Kerngood, at Baltimore, goes to Philadelphia today for a visit to her youngest daughter, Mrs. Leonard Weil.

Mrs. George Friedlander is visiting relatives at New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph King of Beverly Courts left town on Tuesday for Asheville, Tenn., to spend ten days.

Mrs. Louis Hopfenmaier is visiting friends at Gerard, Ohio, and will be joined by her daughter, Mrs. Louis Simon, over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. J. S. Kann was hostess on Friday at luncheon and bridge at her home in Irving street, when she entertained the Afternoon Bridge Club.

Mrs. Charles Fiescher, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Annon Behrend, leaves for Norfolk, Va., tomorrow night to be present at the wedding of Miss Eva May Heller and Mr. Alfred Haas, on Wednesday, at the Ghent Club.

Mrs. Louis Koenigsberger of Albany, N. Y., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles Kaufman, for about ten days and will be joined by Mrs. Koenigsberger on Tuesday. Mrs. Kaufman will celebrate her seventieth birthday anniversary Tuesday night at a family party.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Barchfeld of Pittsburgh, Pa., were in town during the week, en route to Newport News, Va., to visit their son, who is in camp.

Mrs. John Strahorn of Annapolis, Md., will be the guest of Mrs. Adolph Weyl until tomorrow.

Mrs. Teckla Haas will go to Norfolk, Va., this week to be present at the marriage of her son, Mr. Alfred Haas, and Miss Eva May Heller.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rheims, who came here from Boston about a year ago, have moved to Philadelphia, their future home.

Mrs. Edward Mayer has returned from New York, where she visited her sister and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Blout.

Miss Amy Adler was given a birthday surprise party on Monday night last and a theater party at the Knickerbocker.

The Friday Afternoon Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Sol Minister, on Ontario place, the past week for luncheon and bridge. Eight guests were in the party.

Miss Mae Harris of New York has been spending the past week in town with relatives.

The second military ball for the soldiers stationed about Washington took place last night at Elks' Hall under the auspices of the federated Jewish organizations and the Young Men's Hebrew Association, and brought together a large gathering, including many strangers staying at Washington. The members of the home hospitality committee, with Mrs. Maurice D. Rosenberg as chairman, acted as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sigmund and daughter, Audrey, are now located in the Pasadena, Adams Mill road.

On Thanksgiving afternoon there will be a tea dance for the men in uniform, from 4 to 8 o'clock, in the vestry rooms of the Eighth Street Temple.

Mrs. N. Peyser, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Morris Gudorf, is spending two weeks at Newport News, Va. They are guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. William Garner.

Mrs. Harry Ripley, who was the guest of Mrs. Joseph Strassburger of the Kenesaw, has returned to her home at Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Atlas has returned from Atlanta, Ga., where she was the guest of her mother, Mrs. B. Saul.

Mr. and Mrs. Black of Danville, Pa., are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Sidney Selinger of the Winston, who has been entertaining in their honor.

Mrs. Ned Meyer of New York has been spending the past week in town with friends.

Mrs. Harry S. Klar and Miss Sarah Buent of Baltimore were week-end guests of Mrs. Louis Cramer.

Mrs. S. Schefferman has returned from Richmond, Va., where she was the guest of her son, Mr. M. Schefferman, for two weeks.

Mr. Alvin Newmyer is spending the week-end at New York, where Mrs. Newmyer and little son, Alvin, Jr., have been for the past three weeks with relatives.

Mrs. David Sanger had an afternoon at cards at her apartment on Wyoming avenue on Thursday for the benefit of the Jewish Foster Home. Mrs. Louis Cramer entertained at an evening card party at her home for the same benefit the early part of the week.

After spending October at the Traymore, Atlantic City, Mrs. J. H. Michalis visited relatives at New York for several weeks and has just returned to her apartment in the Woodley, Columbia road.

Picked Up Here and There.

"The girl or woman who is knitting on pinks and blues, reds and purples, and who has forgotten that the primary rule of knitting these days is khaki and grays, is a slacker, and I say she is defying the United States government just as much as the man who evades the selective law," declares Miss Margaret Johnson, daughter of E. P. Johnson of Los Angeles. Miss Johnson was to have been one of this season's debutantes.

In accordance with the popular opinion, however, that society girls must give all their time and attention to war work, she, like the many others who had intended "coming out," has dedicated her time to patriotic endeavors.

Although one of the younger members of the younger set, she is deeply saturated with this dear thing we call patriotism, says the Los Angeles Tribune, and to hear her earnest voice as she enthusiastically converses about war is quite an inspiration. "There is just one reason for women spending all this time knitting," says she. "It is that men who have risked everything dear for us may be warm and comfortable as it is possible for us to make them at the battle line."

Last Wednesday night at the Metropolitan opera, New York, the knitting bag became the receptacle for the vanity bag. The needs of the fighters knew no class among the feminine patrons. Such women as Mrs. William Douglas Sloane and Mrs. Frank Gray Griswold set aside precedents of formality in the parterre row and established the knitting vogue there, and throughout the large audience hun-

ders of nimble fingers wove olive drab, gray and blue yarn into warm garments for the soldiers and seamen. War conditions, says the New York Herald, kept men from the premiere of opera. Ensign Vincent Astor, U. S. N. R., now on duty in foreign waters, inherited a parterre box, which has been owned by representatives of three generations of his family. Col. Cornelius Vanderbilt was with the troops at Spartanburg, S. C.

Three young men who inherited the right to appear in the parterre row were not to be seen. They are Lieut. George Henry Warren, Jr., and Messrs. Orme Wilson, Jr., and H. Thornton Wilson. Mr. George Henry Warren, one of the original stockholders of the Metropolitan Opera and Real Estate Company, which owns the opera house, was there with a wireless message in his pocket. It informed him that his son, Lieut. Warren, had arrived in France and had reported for duty. The absence of the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Orme Wilson and cousin of Ensign Astor was caused by their having

MISS CONSTANCE GRAY.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Gray, whose engagement was announced a few days ago.

War Times at Opera and Horse Show. The needs of the fighters knew no class among the feminine patrons. Such women as Mrs. William Douglas Sloane and Mrs. Frank Gray Griswold set aside precedents of formality in the parterre row and established the knitting vogue there, and throughout the large audience hun-

ders of nimble fingers wove olive drab, gray and blue yarn into warm garments for the soldiers and seamen. War conditions, says the New York Herald, kept men from the premiere of opera. Ensign Vincent Astor, U. S. N. R., now on duty in foreign waters, inherited a parterre box, which has been owned by representatives of three generations of his family. Col. Cornelius Vanderbilt was with the troops at Spartanburg, S. C.

Three young men who inherited the right to appear in the parterre row were not to be seen. They are Lieut. George Henry Warren, Jr., and Messrs. Orme Wilson, Jr., and H. Thornton Wilson. Mr. George Henry Warren, one of the original stockholders of the Metropolitan Opera and Real Estate Company, which owns the opera house, was there with a wireless message in his pocket. It informed him that his son, Lieut. Warren, had arrived in France and had reported for duty. The absence of the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Orme Wilson and cousin of Ensign Astor was caused by their having been ordered to report to the War Department in Washington. Both at the horse show and at the opera the spectators had before them evidence that the war already has called to France men of the wealthiest families of New York. It was the first show which Capt. Thomas Hitchcock, aviation section, Signal Corps, had missed in nearly thirty years. Maj. Edward B. Cassatt, Inspector General's Office Reserve Corps, another patron, was kept away by his duties as assistant to the division inspector at Camp Upton.

Second Lieut. S. Bryce Wing, Quartermaster's Corps, National Army, one of the younger generation of patrons of the horse show, also was absent, having been ordered to Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C. Maj. Willard D. Straight, Adjutant General's Office Reserve Corps, who had missed few such shows in recent years, had been called from his western detail to report to the adjutant general of the Army. The only men present in the uniform of the armies of the allies were those fortunate enough to be stationed in or near New York.

War duties also were responsible for the absence of Mr. William Ziegler, Jr., and also are said to be the cause of his decision to sell most of his horses.

Lord Dunsany, author of "The Gods of the Mountain" and other plays, who is now at the Worst Dressed Man front, bears the name of Edward John Moreton Drax Plunkett, and many stories are told of him.

Apocryphal of his unique personality the following information comes from across the water: "Lord Dunsany is credited with being the best pistol shot in Ireland, is a keen cricketer and has been captain of his Country Club team. He is a good horseman and loves the saddle. He has a small son, Lady Dunsany is the daughter of Lord Jersey and takes an intelligent interest in her husband's literary life. They know all the leading Irish intellectuals; the dearest tradition of Dunsany castle is the story of Dunsany and Bernard Shaw sailing paper boats on the castle pond. Dunsany writes with a quill pen, generally late at night. His friends claim that he is the worst dressed man in Ireland, though trim enough in uniform. He is six feet two in height and slender, with fair hair, a poet's eyes and a sensitive mouth. He is a romanticist and an impulsive. He is a pretty wit. It is his opinion that 'It is not the ruins of Ypres or a street in Dublin that shows the high-water mark of our time's barbarity. It is to be seen in London in our musical comedies, in much of our architecture and in toys made for children. The production of his name is oft disputed. Lord Dunsany himself has this to say: 'I pronounce it Dun-say-y, with the accent on the second syllable, which is pronounced as say, the first syllable rhyming with gun.'"

The Duchess of Marlborough, nee Consuelo Vanderbilt of New York, after separating from the duke in 1907, is reported to have spent a day recently at Blenheim Palace with her husband on his forty-sixth birthday. Their two boys have been spending half the time with each parent. Her father, William K. Vanderbilt, at her marriage, November 6, 1895, in New York, settled an annuity of $100,000 on his son-in-law and gave his daughter a dowry of $5,000,000. She was seventeen and he twenty-four. They did not find wedded bliss harmonious and separated. It looks as if the King and Queen of England had succeeded in reuniting the couple.

The spirit of a home, a garden or a club is oftentimes expressed by a quotation. Mantelpieces are favorite spots in a home for mottoes. Sometimes the words of a family crest are inscribed, and again a family coat of arms inscribed. Quotations which families have lived up to for years in quaint lettering are seen frequently over a fireplace. Clubs, as a rule, have a welcoming motto in their reception halls. Sun dials among the flowers in one's garden are other ways of expressing in verse an appropriate meaning, says the Seattle Times.

In the Rainier Club over its immense brick fireplace in the entrance hall is the following: "Welcome ever smiles and farewell goes out sighing." It is the same quotation that Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Peoples selected after searching diligently for months for a motto for their home.

Over the mantel in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Guy Frink is inscribed among the Moravian tiles the family coat of arms of the Spaffords. Mrs. Frink's family name, and this inscription, which is something to live up to, "Rather death than false of faythe." Over another mantel in a home built by a Scotchman is the family Scotch plaid in colors, with the coat of arms, and this: "Hang care. Care would kill a cat, therefore, let's be merry." In the living room of Dr. Charles B. Ford's home is this: "Good friends, good news, good cheer." One might softly gossip or tell secrets in the dining room which has this inscription: "That confidence is never broken which under the rose is spoken."

It seems an unusual thing to say, but it is probably true that Philadelphia will experience the most brilliant opera season this winter. It has ever known, not despite the war, but because of the war. Yet the matter is very simple when it is analyzed. America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people over a fireplace. Clubs, as a rule, have a welcoming motto in their reception halls. Sun dials among the flowers in one's garden are other ways of expressing in verse an appropriate meaning, says the Seattle Times.

In the Rainier Club over its immense brick fireplace in the entrance hall is the following: "Welcome ever smiles and farewell goes out sighing." It is the same quotation that Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Peoples selected after searching diligently for months for a motto for their home.

Over the mantel in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Guy Frink is inscribed among the Moravian tiles the family coat of arms of the Spaffords. Mrs. Frink's family name, and this inscription, which is something to live up to, "Rather death than false of faythe." Over another mantel in a home built by a Scotchman is the family Scotch plaid in colors, with the coat of arms, and this: "Hang care. Care would kill a cat, therefore, let's be merry." In the living room of Dr. Charles B. Ford's home is this: "Good friends, good news, good cheer." One might softly gossip or tell secrets in the dining room which has this inscription: "That confidence is never broken which under the rose is spoken."

It seems an unusual thing to say, but it is probably true that Philadelphia will experience the most brilliant opera season this winter. It has ever known, not despite the war, but because of the war. Yet the matter is very simple when it is analyzed. America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum by both rich and poor; entertainments are curtailed; big balls and receptions eliminated; diners are considered bad form when so many in Europe are on the edge of starvation. Those folks who are classed as society people feel this keenly. They are working now as they never worked before, and they are giving up their enjoyment. Nearly all their private entertainments have been annulled and they have practically no form of recreation.

In steps the opera. It has been announced that the Metropolitan Opera Company will show as usual in Philadelphia this coming season, except that it will not produce any German opera. War-weary and work-weary people

Opera Sole Diversion for Quaker City.

America is in the midst of a terrible

war. To win this war people are sacrificing their time, their money, their food, their enjoyment and even their lives. Expenses are being cut to a minimum